

PROPERTY MANAGER

AMY SOVINE, CPM®

POWERFUL LEADER, PROVEN PROPERTY MANAGER

As property manager for Siegel-Gallagher Management Company, Amy Sovine brings with her a wide spectrum of experience, having worked with two major management firms in the Midwest. Most recently Sovine managed 245,000 sq. ft. of commercial office space simultaneously with a 261,000 sq. ft. 275-unit apartment complex. Her expertise also includes human resources management, leasing, budgets, contract negotiations, and renovations. Sovine's professional focus lies in turning stressed, declining developments into flourishing, profitable properties at the top of their markets.

Using strong detail-oriented organizational skills, Sovine has acted as General Contractor for many multi-million dollar interior and exterior renovation and capital improvement projects. Her enthusiasm, combined with a no-nonsense, hands-on approach, makes her invaluable to tenants and ownership, while her strong leadership skills aid in creating and managing a staff with the highest performance standards.

EXPERTISE

- Residential property management
- Office property management
- Renovation/capital improvement project coordination
- Tenant relations and negotiations
- Contract negotiation/implementation
- Restoring challenged and distressed properties to levels of success
- Budget preparation, implementation, and evaluation

EDUCATION & ACCREDITATIONS

- B.A., University of Wisconsin, Milwaukee
- Certified Property Management® License (CPM®)

AFFILIATIONS

- IREM Member
- Panther City Real Estate Group

MKE MAD CHI

SIEGEL-GALLAGHER
Brokerage Management Construction
www.sg-re.com