

PRINCIPAL, EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT—MADISON

CRAIG P. STANLEY, CCIM

ENIGMATIC LEADER AND NETWORKER

Craig Stanley directs the Madison Office of Siegel-Gallagher ONCOR International, where his primary focus is in two areas of expertise: Corporate Services and Investment Properties. Stanley's experience in Corporate Services involves end-user representation of individual facilities and portfolio accounts. This is a valuable combination of skills because of Siegel-Gallagher's integrated approach to orchestrating and executing occupancy transactions.

Since opening the Madison office, Stanley has arranged transactions for some of the largest firms in the area, including Brown Shoes, Madison Area Technical College, CUNA Mutual Group, Progressive Insurance, Google, and Amcore Bank.

Previously, Stanley worked for GVA Williams and Mesirow Financial, both in Chicago. There he represented such corporate clients as RCN Corporation, National Healthcare Resources, Quebecor Printing and Justrite Manufacturing, a federal sign company.
